

Build credible leadership skills with your employees.

Empower their personal strengths.

LEADING WITH STYLE

ARE YOU UP FOR THE CHALLENGE?

Schedule a one-day personal development workshop for your team with the National Command and Staff College and ...

- ▶ Enhance relationships
- ▶ Increase team productivity
- ▶ Improve personal and group satisfaction.

Participants will identify their innate personal style and learn how this relates to people, tasks, time and situations. Understanding personal strengths of self and others improves interpersonal communications and increases success in all relationships – at work and at home! Each participant will receive the book Deliberate Leadership and Personal Style Indicator results.

To schedule a “Leading with Style” workshop for your organization or to become a host site, contact the National Command and Staff College now!
